Your contribution supports the following programs:

- Parent-to-Parent Support: Matches new families with veteran parents through our trained parent volunteer network.
- Parent Leadership Development: Parents acquire leadership skills, receive training, participate in the Family Faculty; and serve on boards councils commissions, and state agency review panels to represent the family perspective
- Community and Family Outreach: Provides families with our bi-monthly newsletter, lending library and website. Supports families of diverse language and culture including Spanish translation of programs and services, and tribal liaisons to the Hopi and Navajo nations. Provides outreach to rural areas.
- Parent/Professional Collaboration: Provides professionals with information and training on family-centered care, and creates partnerships that support professionals in health, education and social services.

Raising Special Kids is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and donations are tax deductible within the limits of the law. You may also designate Raising Special Kids as a recipient through your United Way contribution by supplying our identification # 0314.

Thank you for your gift!
